

Journaling for

Teachers

Why did I become a teacher?

Which three words describe my educational philosophy?

What small victories have I experienced this week?

What do I love about this generation of children?

How do I recharge my batteries during the working day?

When was the last time pupils had fun in my class? When is the next opportunity to make fun?

Which of my colleagues need some support and love this week?

To take care of myself and turn off from work this week I'm going to?

I wish my boss knew...

The best part of my day is...

What do I love about the culture of my school?

How have I been challenged lately? What did I learn from this challenge?

In what way have I grown since my first year as a teacher?

I want to start ----, I want to stop ----, I want to continue to ----

How do I want my pupils to remember me?

What is one thing I can change this week to make my life easier?

What are 3 good things about that challenging child in my class?

